

Pug Dog Encephalitis Summary Report

Would you like to know more about Pug Dog Encephalitis? This summary report gives the most up to date scientific knowledge of the subject by the PDE speaker at the 2003 Pug Club of America Nationals. If you missed the discussion or would like more detailed information this summary report is necessary for current scientific knowledge on the subject. It is 50 pages of information for pug owners, breeders and veterinarians. It includes a 'diagnosis flowchart' to assist veterinarians in properly testing for alternative diagnoses. It is the essential report on Pug Dog Encephalitis, a must have for every Pug owner, breeder and veterinarian.

Topics covered are:

- A. Pathology
- B. Clinical treatments
- C. Etiology hypotheses (causes)
- D. Research and results yielded
- E. Current research pending (including information on genetic and clinical tests)

Commissioned from: Kimberly Greer, Ph.D., NIH Fellow/ Assistant Research Scientist
Laboratory of Canine Genomics, College of Veterinary Medicine, Texas A&M University

Half of the profits from this report will go to PDE research.

ORDER FORM

Name: _____

Address: _____

City/State/Prov: _____ Zip/Postal Code: _____

Country: _____

_____ x PDE report(s) at: $14.95* each (shipping included)

*Canadian addresses please pay in CDN funds, US addresses please pay in US funds Overseas please pay in Canadian or US funds but enclose $5 extra for overseas shipping.
Please make cheques payable to Pug Club of Canada.*

Send to: Pug Club of Canada
c/o Stacey Smith RR#8 – 768 Franklin Rd.,
Gibsons, BC, CANADA V0N 1V8

Please allow 4-6 weeks for delivery via regular post.

www.PugCanada.com